

HR and Employment Relations Support and Advice

Access tailored workplace advice and support in minutes

Did you know that as a Canberra Business Chamber member, not only can you connect with the largest network of business leaders in the region, and gain visibility in the community, but you can also access valuable services for businesses like our free Employer Assist Advice Line?

The Employer Assist Advice Line delivers real benefits for your business

- Large team of experience workplace experts ready and waiting to assist you.
- Have your call answered in an exceptionally short time frame.
- In-depth advice specific to the situation at hand (you'll never get basic information that you could have Googled yourself).
- Gain confidence and get peace of mind.
- Ensure you're compliant with Australia's strict employment laws.
- Reduce risks such as reputational damage and costly workplace claims.

The Employer Assist Advice Line is available between 8:30am to 5:30pm, Monday to Friday to assist you with a range of employment matters, including:

- Modern award interpretation and compliance.
- Employment contracts.
- Employer termination and employee resignation.
- Employee entitlements, National Employment Standards and related laws.
- Counselling and discipline.
- Enterprise Agreements and bargaining.
- Bullying and harassment.
- Independent contracting agreements.
- Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and discrimination.
- And more!
