

HR and Employment Relations Support and Advice

Access tailored workplace advice and support in minutes

There are many benefits when you become a Canberra Business Chamber member, including connecting with the largest network of business leaders in the region, gaining visibility in the community, and accessing valuable services for businesses like our free Employer Assist Advice Line.

The Employer Assist Advice Line delivers real benefits for your business

- Large team of experience workplace experts ready and waiting to assist you.
- Have your call answered in an exceptionally short time frame.
- In-depth advice specific to the situation at hand (you'll never get basic information that you could have Googled yourself).
- Gain confidence and get peace of mind.
- Ensure you're compliant with Australia's strict employment laws.
- Reduce risks such as reputational damage and costly workplace claims.

The Employer Advice Line is available between 8:30am to 5:30pm, Monday to Friday to assist you with a range of employment matters, including:

- Modern award interpretation and compliance.
- Employment contracts.
- Employer termination and employee resignation.
- Employee entitlements, National Employment Standards and related laws.
- Counselling and discipline.
- Enterprise Agreements and bargaining.
- Bullying and harassment.
- Independent contracting agreements.
- Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and discrimination.
- And more!

So how long and how often can you call the Employer Assist Advice Line?
It depends on which membership package you sign up for:

	MICRO	BUSINESS	KINDRED	CORPORATE	PRINCIPAL
Membership suitability:	Sole traders only	Small-to-medium businesses	Industry associations and not-for-profit organisations	Medium-to-large businesses	Business leaders in the Canberra community
Call limits per year	0 calls	5 calls/1hr	5 calls/1hr	10 calls/2hr	Unlimited access

Want to learn more about the benefits of becoming a Chamber member? Get in touch with us today.

Call 02 6247 4199 or email membership@canberrabusiness.com.